

Elizabeth Ellison Resume, CV, Selected Past projects, Etc.

Owner/operator ELIZABETH ELLISON GALLERY since 1986 in Bryson City, NC

Upcoming, 2017 one-person exhibition The Baker Center at the NC Arboretum, Asheville, NC titled SPIRIT OF PLACE.

Long-time and current cover artist for Niche Gardens, an award winning native plant nursery in Chapel Hill, NC

Ongoing and past: artist and/or illustrator for "The Nature Journal" a weekly column (about 20 years duration) in The Asheville-Citizen-Times Newspaper— in collaboration with writer/naturalist George Ellison. Artist for Botanical Excursions Chinquapin; The Newsletter of The Appalachian Southern Botanical Society. Art work for numerous publications in collaboration with George Ellison including BLUE RIDGE NATURE JOURNAL, MOUNTAIN PASSAGES, PERMANENT CAMP, HIGH VISTAS VOLUMES 1 AND 11, Kephart books reissued by The Great Smoky Mountains Association, artist for essay in THE AMERICAN HORTICULTURAL MAGAZINE 2015 as well as art work/cover art for numerous publications (other writers work than that of George Ellison).

Commissioned artist by the office of Governor Beverly Perdue of North Carolina for gifts to attending governors at The Southern Governors Association meeting in Asheville NC

2013 two-person exhibition at The NC Arboretum, Asheville, NC

2013 invitational one-person exhibition NC Botanical Garden, Chapel Hill, NC

2014 Invitational 7-artist exhibit and panel discussion; WITHIN THE LINES sponsored by The Wilderness Society in Handmade in America Gallery in Asheville, NC

2014 2-person invitational at The Swain County Fine Arts Center in Bryson City, NC

Featured artist (spring 2007) Appalachian Heritage Quarterly magazine

Featured artist for article OUR STATE magazine November 2006

Artist for the movie SONGCATCHER, 2000 (released)