

ELIZABETH ELLISON

Published Artwork & Exhibitions

Owner/operator Elizabeth Ellison Gallery in Bryson City, NC since 1986.

- One-person exhibition at The Baker Center at The NC Arboretum, Asheville, NC titled “spirit of Place” (2017).
- Artist and/or illustrator for "The Nature Journal" a weekly column (about 40 years duration) in The Asheville Citizen-Times newspaper- in collaboration with writer/naturalist George Ellison.
- Artist for Botanical Excursions Chinquapin; The Newsletter of The Appalachian Southern Botanical Society.
- Long-time cover artist for Niche Gardens, an award-winning native plant nursery in Chapel Hill, NC.
- Artwork for numerous publications in collaboration with George Ellison including Blue Ridge Nature Journal, Mountain Passages, Permanent Camp, High Vistas (Vols. 1 and 2), and Literary Excursions in the Southern Highlands.
- Cover paintings for Horace Kephart books: Our Southern Highlanders (3rd ed.), and Smoky Mountain Magic.
- Artist for essay in The American Horticultural Magazine 2015 as well as artwork / cover art for numerous publications (other writers work than that of George Ellison).
- Artwork commissioned by North Carolina Governor Beverly Perdue as gifts for ten attending governors at a Southern Governors Association meeting in Asheville NC.
- Invitational seven-artist exhibit and panel discussion; “Within the Lines” sponsored by The Wilderness Society in Handmade in America Gallery in Asheville, NC (2014).
- Two-person invitational at The Swain County Fine Arts Center, Bryson City (2014).
- Two-person exhibition at The NC Arboretum, Asheville, NC (2013).
- One-person invitational exhibition at The Botanical Garden, Chapel Hill, NC (2013).
- Featured artist Appalachian Heritage Quarterly magazine (Spring, 2007).
- Featured artist for article in Our State magazine (November).
- Artist for the movie “Songcatcher”, (released in 2000).